How the money lines up

Teton County, 2026. Charitable money on the left may not support or oppose a candidate. Money on the right can. The same people work on both sides.

→ Money ---- Endorsement or promotion, no dollars ▬ Donors never disclosed

Charitable money

George B. Storer Foundation

Private foundation, Jackson. $89.7 million in assets.

$1,000,000

→ The Riverbend Fund

Donor-advised fund at Schwab Charitable. Where it went next is on no filing.

$1.09 million

→ Wyoming Civic Engagement Network

Cheyenne charity. Over four years, $530,000 of it through a New York fiscal sponsor.

$1.02 million

→ Better Wyoming

Laramie charity, with a 501(c)(4) action arm.

$465,000

→ Jackson Hole Conservation Alliance

Its leadership institute trained Kaufman, Chin and Dunford.

$47,805, 2024

Mountain Movement Strategies

Consulting firm co-founded by Chin and Schell.

$17,064

Keep Jackson Whole PAC

Rep. Liz Storer's committee. $12,500 from three named donors.

promoted all three

The slate, Aug. 18, 2026 primary

Karyn Chin, Luther Propst and Ali Dunford

All three won.

Money that can reach a ballot

▬ New Venture and Sixteen Thirty funds

Washington, D.C. pass-throughs.

$1.8 million, 2024

▬ Western Futures Fund

Sheridan 501(c)(4). $8.7 million in and $6.8 million out to 22 groups, 2024.

$30,000 to Better Wyoming's 501(c)(4) arm

$1.4 million

Way Back PAC

Federal PAC. Western Futures is its sponsor.

$70,000

▬ Shelter JH

Housing group, 501(c)(4). Endorsed the slate.

Wyoming Way PAC

It has raised $240,000, seven-eighths of it ($210,000) from Western Futures.

$75,000

▬ Wyoming Donor Alliance

Cody 501(c)(4).

$250,000

▬ Action Now Initiative

Arnold Ventures' 501(c)(4), Texas.

$5,500

endorsed

The people who appear on both sides

	Charitable side	Ballot side
Liz Storer	Storer Foundation president and CEO. Named adviser of the Riverbend Fund (2015 list).	State representative. Chairs Keep Jackson Whole PAC.
Luther Propst	Storer Foundation trustee. Named adviser of the Riverbend Fund (2015 list).	2026 candidate. Recommended by Shelter JH; $1,500 from Way Back PAC.
Ryan Lance	Storer Foundation trustee.	Way Back PAC treasurer; signs every filing.
Nikki Kaufman	Paid $67,087 by the Storer Foundation as a consultant, 2022.	Shelter JH vice chair, then chair, 2022–24. Ran the Wyoming Donor Alliance, 2023–24.
Skye Schell	Ran the Jackson Hole Conservation Alliance, 2017–22.	Co-founded Shelter JH (treasurer, 2022). Founded Mountain Movement and Yellow Tree.
Karyn Chin	Trained by the Conservation Alliance's leadership institute.	2026 candidate. Co-founded Mountain Movement; $2,500 from Way Back PAC.

No filing moves a dollar directly between the Storer Foundation and Western Futures. The channels meet in the same candidates, the same consultant and the same people. Nothing here alleges a violation of law.

Sources: IRS Forms 990 and 990-PF; Federal Election Commission; Wyoming Secretary of State; Teton County Clerk; the organizations' own websites; a 2015 donor list published by a Jackson trails group. Every figure is sourced at wydarkmoney.org.